

2017 EDPL Young Scholars Award

CALL FOR PAPERS

The European Data Protection Law Review cordially invites master students and PhD students to submit articles based on their thesis.

The five best submissions will be published in the European Data Protection Law Review. The winning contribution will also be awarded with a one-year subscription to the European Data Protection Law Review.

The contribution must deal with a data protection issue and address it from a European perspective. The preferred approach is legal, but interdisciplinary approaches are also welcome.

The article should depict the thesis' core points, including key questions, hypothesis, methodology, findings and policy recommendations, if applicable.

Regardless of the original language of the work, submissions are only accepted in English. They are subject to the scrutiny of an expert jury which will evaluate their quality, degree of innovation and clarity of presentation.
