

Contents

Foreword	V
List of Abbreviations	XI

PART I

Introduction	1
A. The Idea of the Guide	1
B. Pointers for Use	1
I. Official publications	1
II. Bibliography	3
1. References in the text	3
2. Further references on issues in international, European, and national environmental law	4
a) Introductions to environmental law/concise textbooks	4
b) Handbooks	4
3. International and European environmental law	4
4. References on special issues in environmental law	6
5. Additional references	6
6. English-language scholarly journals	7
7. German-language scholarly journals	7

PART II

International, European, and National – German – Environmental Law	9
A. Environmental Protection as a State Responsibility	9
I. Environmental protection as a global problem	9
II. The concept of “environment”	10
III. Environmental protection elevated to constitutional status	11
IV. Environmental protection by means of environmental law	14
Questions on Chapter A	15
B. Environmental Protection and Environmental Law – Legal Sources of Environmental Law	15
I. International environmental law	15
1. Objectives and development	15
2. International law of treaties	22
3. Customary international law	23
4. “Soft law”	23

5. The relationship of international (environmental) law to national and European environmental law	24
6. Enforcement of international environmental law	25
7. Prospects.....	26
II. European environmental law	26
1. On terminology: European Community (EC) and European Union (EU) – European law and Community law	26
2. Objectives and development	27
3. Principles	28
a) Principle of a high level of protection	28
b) Precautionary principle and principle of preventive action	28
c) Principle of correction at source	29
d) Polluter-pays principle.....	29
e) Cross-section principle	29
f) Principle of subsidiarity and principle of proportionality	29
4. Primary Community law	30
5. Secondary Community law	30
6. The bases of competencies	33
7. The relationship of European environmental law and national environmental law	34
8. Prospects and current challenges.....	34
9. Selected areas	35
a) Environmental impact assessment, EIA Directive and Amendments	35
b) Habitats Directive	36
c) IPPC Directive	36
d) Council Directive 90/313/EEC	37
e) Water Framework Directive	37
f) Directives on ambient air quality (Framework Directive and Daughter Directives)	38
g) Emissions Trading Directive	40
h) Environmental Liability Directive	42
10. Enforcement of European environmental law	45
a) Supervisory and infringement procedures	45
b) Nullity action.....	45
c) Proceedings for failure to act	45
d) Public liability action	46
e) Preliminary ruling procedure	46
f) Incidental judicial review of regulations	46
g) Interim relief	46
III. National environmental law in the case of Germany	47
1. Regulating environmental behavior	47

2. Purpose and legal nature of basic environmental and environmental policy principles	47
3. Principles and instruments	48
a) Principles	48
(1) Precautionary principle	48
(2) Polluter-pays versus community-pays principle	48
(3) Cooperation principle	49
(4) Other principles	49
b) Instruments	50
(1) Planning	50
(2) Environmental impact assessment	52
(3) Direct regulation of behavior	53
(4) Indirect regulation of behavior	57
(5) Remedial action by the state	63
(6) Cooperation	63
(7) Assessment	64
4. Reform of federalism and German Environmental Code (UGB)	64
a) Reorganization of competencies in environmental law	64
b) “Europe-compatibility” of federalism reform	65
c) German Environmental Code and requirements of European law	65
5. Legal protection	66
a) Legal protection in environmental administrative proceedings	66
b) Judicial remedy	67
(1) Forms of action	67
(2) Right of action and of initiating proceedings	68
(a) Third party action	68
(b) Legal protection for municipalities	68
(c) Legal action by associations under environmental law	69
(d) Legal protection against norms	69
(3) Density of judicial control	70
(4) Interim relief	71
Questions on Chapter B	71
C. Environmental Administration – Enforcement of Environmental Law	72
I. The European level	72
II. The national level (the case of Germany)	72
III. Power of internal organization	73
1. The European level	73
2. The national level (the case of Germany)	73
a) The Federal level	73
b) The States (Länder)	74
3. International environmental organizations	75

4. Non-governmental environmental organizations	76
Questions on Chapter C.	76
D. Responsibility for Funding	76
E. Current Example on the Interplay of International, European, and National Law: Climate Protection, Kyoto Protocol, and Emissions Trading	77
I. Climate change: the hitherto negated catastrophe	77
II. International conventions and the Kyoto Protocol	78
III. European measures, especially emission allowance trading and further instruments	81
IV. Legal mechanisms of implementation on a national level and the constitutional status of climate protection (the case of Germany)	83
V. Summary and prospects	84
Questions on Chapter E.	85
F. Answers to Questions on Chapters A. to E. (partly in abbreviated form with references to the marginal numbers in the text) ...	85